Curry Arts is working to entice past members into joining us again.

Because of the ever-increasing expense of duplication and postage, Curry Arts reluctantly gave up its monthly mailed Newsletter. Thanks to Board Member Shelley MacIntosh and spouse Randy, we now have a wonderful website to replace the Newsletter to bring you the news and events of Curry Arts and its members! Please check it out online at: www.curryarts.org. As it grows, we're hoping that members and folks interested in our south coast arts and artists find it a good 21st century replacement for the 20th century mailed version.

Thanks to Board Member Sharon Guinn's organizing skills, Curry Arts sponsored a number of free, one-day workshops for members which motivated some to join every year. Curry Arts offers a $100 honorarium to artists to teach a workshop and is still soliciting volunteers to teach and/or ideas from members for workshops. We'd love to get them going again and the Extension Center classroom has undergone a lovely transformation which makes it even nicer to use (plus it's free to non-profits).

Due to the commitment of Board Members Tammy DeLaney and Doreen Nielson, the Annual September Brew and Art Festival continues to provide the funds that make our commitment to promoting the arts in the Gold Beach schools possible. In addition to our annual Jo Bailey/Curry Arts Scholarship, we provide the tuition and materials for some Gold Beach High School students to take the local SWOCC evening art classes. As in past years, our 2017 proceeds from the Brewfest were shared by the art and music programs with $1,500 for GBHS Art, $1,000 to Riley Creek Art and $2,500 for band instrument repairs this year.

These funds go into the schools dedicated 290 funds, are used only by the art and music programs, and do not affect the amount of public funding. Win/win.

We kept the same membership year:

September 1st through August 31st.

With the new website, we are able to offer a variety of membership options:

- Curry Arts Membership dues are $15.00 per year per individual or entire family.
- A Sponsoring Artist Membership at $35.00 per year entitles you to a gallery page on our website plus a link to your own website.
- A Sponsoring Business Membership at $35.00 per year entitles you to display your business card or logo on our website plus a link to your business website.
- A Donating Member to Curry Arts (a 501c3 non-profit - tax identification #93-0746439) supports art in our community!

If you're not listed on the next page and would like to join us again, please print the form below (or from our website) and mail it with your check payable to Curry Arts, Inc. to:
